- Fluent in English and Igbo languages

APPLIED PROJECTS

Software Developer   May 2014 – Present
World Map Brain Teaser
- Designed and implemented a countries trivia game for Android mobile devices using Java and XML

- Successfully published the game to the Google Play Store, receiving over 500 downloads

- Stored country names within an external file rather than in a traditional array, which enhances the speed at which the program matches user input and stored country names

WORK EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant   January 2015 – Present
Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario
School of Computer Science Department
- Familiarize students with problem solving in computer science using Swift and Objective C.
- Guide and assist students in understanding course material and assignments
- Grade assignments submitted by students and give feedbacks

Technical Support   April 2010 – May 2011
Consolidated Micho Nig. LTD, Lagos, Nigeria
- Provided quality support for technical issues regarding office networks and printers, ensuring smooth business operations
- Efficiently responded to simultaneous requests from different members of the office, in a fast paced manner, demonstrating my ability to effectively prioritize duties
- Assisted in formatting and creating business request documents

INTERESTS

- Mobile development for Android and iOS
- Member of the HackerRank online competitive programming platforms, for the practice and application of concepts learned in class through solving coding challenges
- Participating in gym activities